 Bankruptcy Resolution

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) indicates that you have one or more student loans and/or grant overpayment(s) in an active bankruptcy status. Before you can receive additional federal student aid, you must provide a copy of the bankruptcy proceedings from the bankruptcy court which verifies that your federal student loan(s) and or grant overpayment(s) are dischargeable. Your bankruptcy status may not affect your eligibility for financial aid.

INSTRUCTIONS: Complete the following, include a copy of your bankruptcy proceedings, sign and return.

1. Is the Title IV debt (loan or grant overpayment) included in the bankruptcy?
 ___ NO If NO, applicant is eligible for Title IV aid.
 ___ YES If YES, proceed to question #2.

2. Is the Title IV debt a defaulted loan or grant overpayment?
 ___ NO If NO, applicant is eligible for Title IV aid.
 ___ YES If YES, proceed to question #3.

3. Has the Title IV debt been discharged or is it dischargeable?
 ___ YES If YES, applicant is eligible for Title IV aid. [The borrower must provide documentation from the holder of the debt stating it is dischargeable (NSLDS code DO).]
 ___ NO If NO, applicant must make satisfactory payment arrangements with the holder of the debt before consideration for further aid.

A copy of my bankruptcy proceedings from the bankruptcy court is attached with this completed form.
