Location: NUHS Campus, Lombard, IL 60148

This program provides doctors the opportunity to learn this age-old technique in levels of progression. Each level incorporates classroom and laboratory practicum to advance the attendee's acupuncture knowledge along with their clinical application skills. The 1st 100 hours offers an overview and basic training in acupuncture theory and techniques.

A certificate of completion is available after successful completion of the 1st 100 hours. This program must be completed in its entirety with a passing score on both the written and practical examinations.

Lab participation will include being needled and needling others.

NUHS is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
