New Student Orientation

Friday, January 5th, 2024
Janse Hall, Room 139
Check in at 8:30am CT

During the New Student Orientation, you'll meet key administrators and staff, learn more about your degree completion requirements, and acquire key strategies and tips to ensure a successful start and continued success at National University of Health Sciences. You'll also receive a brief orientation on online resources.

You will have an opportunity to interact with various department representatives, meet new friends, and tour the campus.

We would like you to explore the wealth of resources presented in the New Student Orientation material on Cygnet! This self-paced session is full of tips and tools to help you navigate your NUHS journey. Mark your calendars, CygeNET portal opens on January 2nd. As you go through the orientation material, we kindly request your prompt attention to a few forms that need to be completed beforehand. Your completion of these forms is greatly appreciated!

We're eagerly awaiting your arrival!
